

1) A customer may return to the motor vehicle inspection station within 60 days of an initial test and receive a copy of the VIR from the station. If a copy of the VIR is needed after 60 days of the initial test, the information is available through DEQ records for a fee.